This 1974-75 version of the North Stars' story is the eighth — and the editors hope, the most informative and interesting — published by Minnesota's National Hockey League team.

Its purpose is two-fold:

1. To provide information so that members of the press, radio and television are able more easily to report the activities of the North Stars.

2. To provide that same information combined with interesting photos and photo layouts to the members of the public who purchase the North Stars' Story.

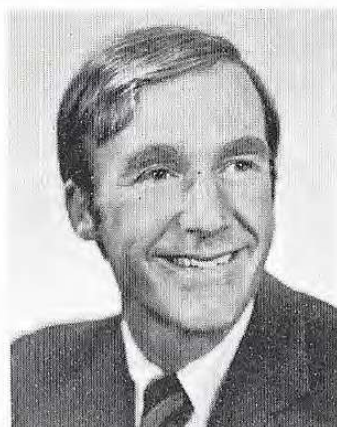

It is the sincere hope of the editors that both of these purposes have been fulfilled.

LOOKING AT 1974-75

Aiming at the Top Rung

Where do the North Stars plan to go in 1974-75 as they start play in a new division, under a new general manager and with new faces?

Up, that's where.

The North Stars aim at nothing less than the top rung in the National Hockey League's Conn Smythe Division, made up of Minnesota, Chicago, St. Louis, Vancouver and Kansas City.

Jack Gordon, appointed general manager and coach, did not step in and dismantle last year's team. It is Gordon's belief that the North Stars have strong personnel and need only a few key changes.

Changes were made. Right winger John Flesch and left winger Don Martineau, both long on size and checking ability, were acquired from Atlanta. What was called the best Amateur Draft in the team's history produced such blue chippers as defenseman Doug Hicks, left winger Richard Nantais and goalkeeper Pete Lo Presti. Youngsters such as defenseman Chris Ahrens, center Blake Dunlop and right winger Johnny Rogers come into this season with added maturity gained in the minor leagues.

But the backbone of the club returns from last season. Capt. Bill Goldsworthy is one of the best two or three right wingers in the NHL. Center Dennis Hextall is equally-respected. Veteran forwards J. P. Parise, Jude Drouin, Fred Stanfield, Murray Oliver, Henry Boucha and Lou Nanne and Defensemen Barry Gibbs, Tom Reid, Dennis O'Brien and Fred Barrett give the North Stars depth and experience matched by few clubs in the NHL.

All of them are ready for a move in an upward direction.

WALTER
BUSH, JR.
President and Governor

There are barely enough hours in the day or days in the week for Walter Bush, Jr., to accomplish his many duties. As a result, Bush is a man on the go 12 months of the year. The 45-year-old winner of the Lester Patrick Trophy in 1973 and National Hockey League Executive of the Year in 1972 has as his prime responsibility operation of Met Center and the North Stars. That task would be enough for many men. But Bush also is vice-chairman of the NHL's Board of Governors, a member of the Owner-Player Council, vice-president of the Governing Committee of the NHL and United States Hockey halls of fame, serves on the NHL Pension and International Committees, is a director of the Amateur Hockey Association of the United States and secretary of the U.S. Olympic Hockey Committee. Bush was the first American appointed to the NHL Hockey Hall of Fame Governing Committee. He approaches all of these duties with a smile and an even temper and occasionally finds time for a few rounds of golf or a run down the ski slopes. A native of Minneapolis, Bush is a graduate of Dartmouth College and the University of Minnesota Law School. A hockey player, coach and executive at all levels of the sport, he was more responsible than any person for bringing a National Hockey League team to Minnesota, and is equally responsible for creation of one of the most successful franchises in the NHL. Bush and his wife, Mary, live in Edina and are the parents of two sons and a daughter.

JACK GORDON

General Manager- Coach

Jack Gordon is a familiar figure in Minnesota, but the 46-year-old hockey executive assumes a new role this season. The most successful coach in the history of the Minnesota franchise now is both general manager and coach of the North Stars. Gordon has the background and experience that promises success in his new position. He served 11 years as player-coach, coach and general manager of Cleveland's American Hockey League team. Gordon also was assistant general manager of the New York Rangers for four seasons. The native of Winnipeg was hired as Minnesota coach in 1970 and proceeded to lead the North Stars to the Stanley Cup playoffs in each of the full seasons he had the club. Gordon is a soft-spoken, polite man, but this quiet exterior masks a firm hand that each of his players respects. He spent 14 years as a player in professional hockey, most of them with Cleveland and other AHL teams, but the clever, high-scoring center played in 36 games with the Rangers. Gordon's philosophy during all of his years in coaching has emphasized the checking game. He's firm in his belief that defense wins hockey games and that if a team keeps its goals-against down, it will more often than not find itself in the playoffs.

Gordon and his wife, Joyce, make their home in Edina. They are the parents of a son and a daughter.

CHARLIE BURNS Assistant General Manager

One of the most popular players ever to pull on a pair of skates in Met Center returns to the North Stars in the person of Charlie Burns. There is a difference in Burns' duties. He's in the front office instead of on the front line. Jack Gordon selected Burns as his No. 1 assistant, the man who will aid him in every phase of the hockey operation. The executive end of hockey is not new to the 38-year-old Detroit native. Burns served as playing coach last season for the North Stars' New Haven AHL team. During the second half of his 1969-70 season at Minnesota, he was player-coach of the North Stars and led them to the playoffs in a dramatic finish. A professional for 15 seasons, Burns played with Detroit, Boston, California and Pittsburgh before he was drafted by Minnesota in 1969.

THE NEW HAVEN ORGANIZATION

DEAN
PRENTICE
Nighthawks'
Coach

Dean Prentice ended a long and distinguished career as a National Hockey League player last season. This season he starts a new career as coach of the North Stars' New Haven affiliate in the American League. If excellence as a National Leaguer is an asset to a coach, Prentice is off to a flying start. The 42-year-old native of Schumacher, Ont., spent 22 seasons in the NHL, never a minute in the minors. When he retired he stood third among active NHL players in games played, seventh in points, seventh in assists and sixth in goals. Prentice played with the Rangers, Boston, Detroit, Pittsburgh and Minnesota. An active member of the Federation of Christian Athletes, Prentice and his wife, June, make their home in New Haven. They are the parents of two daughters.

CHRIS AHRENS (AIR-uns)

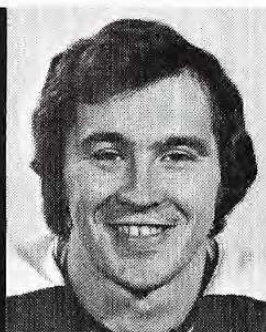

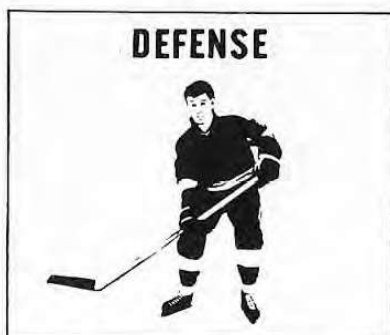

Height: 6'0" — Weight: 186 lbs.
Age: 22 (July 31, 1952)
Born: San Bernadino, Calif.
Home: Freeport, N.Y.

Aggressive Chris Ahrens, first New Yorker ever drafted by a National Hockey League club, has profited from two years of seasoning in the North Stars' farm system and now appears prepared to make a strong bid for a regular position on defense with the major league team. Assistant General Manager Charlie Burns coached and played with Ahrens at New Haven last season and says the youngster's improvement in all phases of the game has been remarkable. Ahrens' style is robust and he has the penalty minutes on his record to prove it. Two years ago he led the entire American League with 248 minutes. Last year he cut it down to 177 minutes while retaining a penchant for teeth rattling checks and the use of his fists when he deems it necessary ... Fourth-round choice of the North Stars in the 1972 Amateur Draft Learned his hockey on Long Island and went on to play junior at Kitchener of the OHA....His father is head of minor officials for the New York Islanders.... FRED BARRETT

Height: 6-0 — Weight: 188 lbs.
Age: 24 (Jan. 26, 1950)
Born: Ottawa, Ont.
Home: Ottawa, Ont.

When Fred Barrett delivers a body check, his target feels it, yet the young man from Ottawa is nailed for few penalty minutes. It's a matter of style. Barrett usually hits his man high with a standup check that is not only most effective but also legal. Barrett has been in the North Stars' system since they chose him in the second round of the 1970 Amateur Draft, but was hampered by injuries in each of his first three seasons. Last year he stayed healthy and made a strong contribution to Minnesota's defensive corps Both Barrett and his wife, Lois, are working toward university degrees. Barrett attends Ottawa University each summer, taking advantage of the NHL's continuing education program. His wife is a student at the University of Minnesota during the hockey season.... Barrett, a defensively-minded performer, has scored two goals in his NHL career. Both of them came in one game against the New York Islanders in 1972-73... Played junior hockey for the Toronto Marlboros of the OHA ... His teammates handed him the nickname of Swoop.

GARY BERGMAN

Height: 5-11 — Weight: 185 lbs.

Age: 35 (Oct. 7, 1939)

Born: Kenora, Ont.

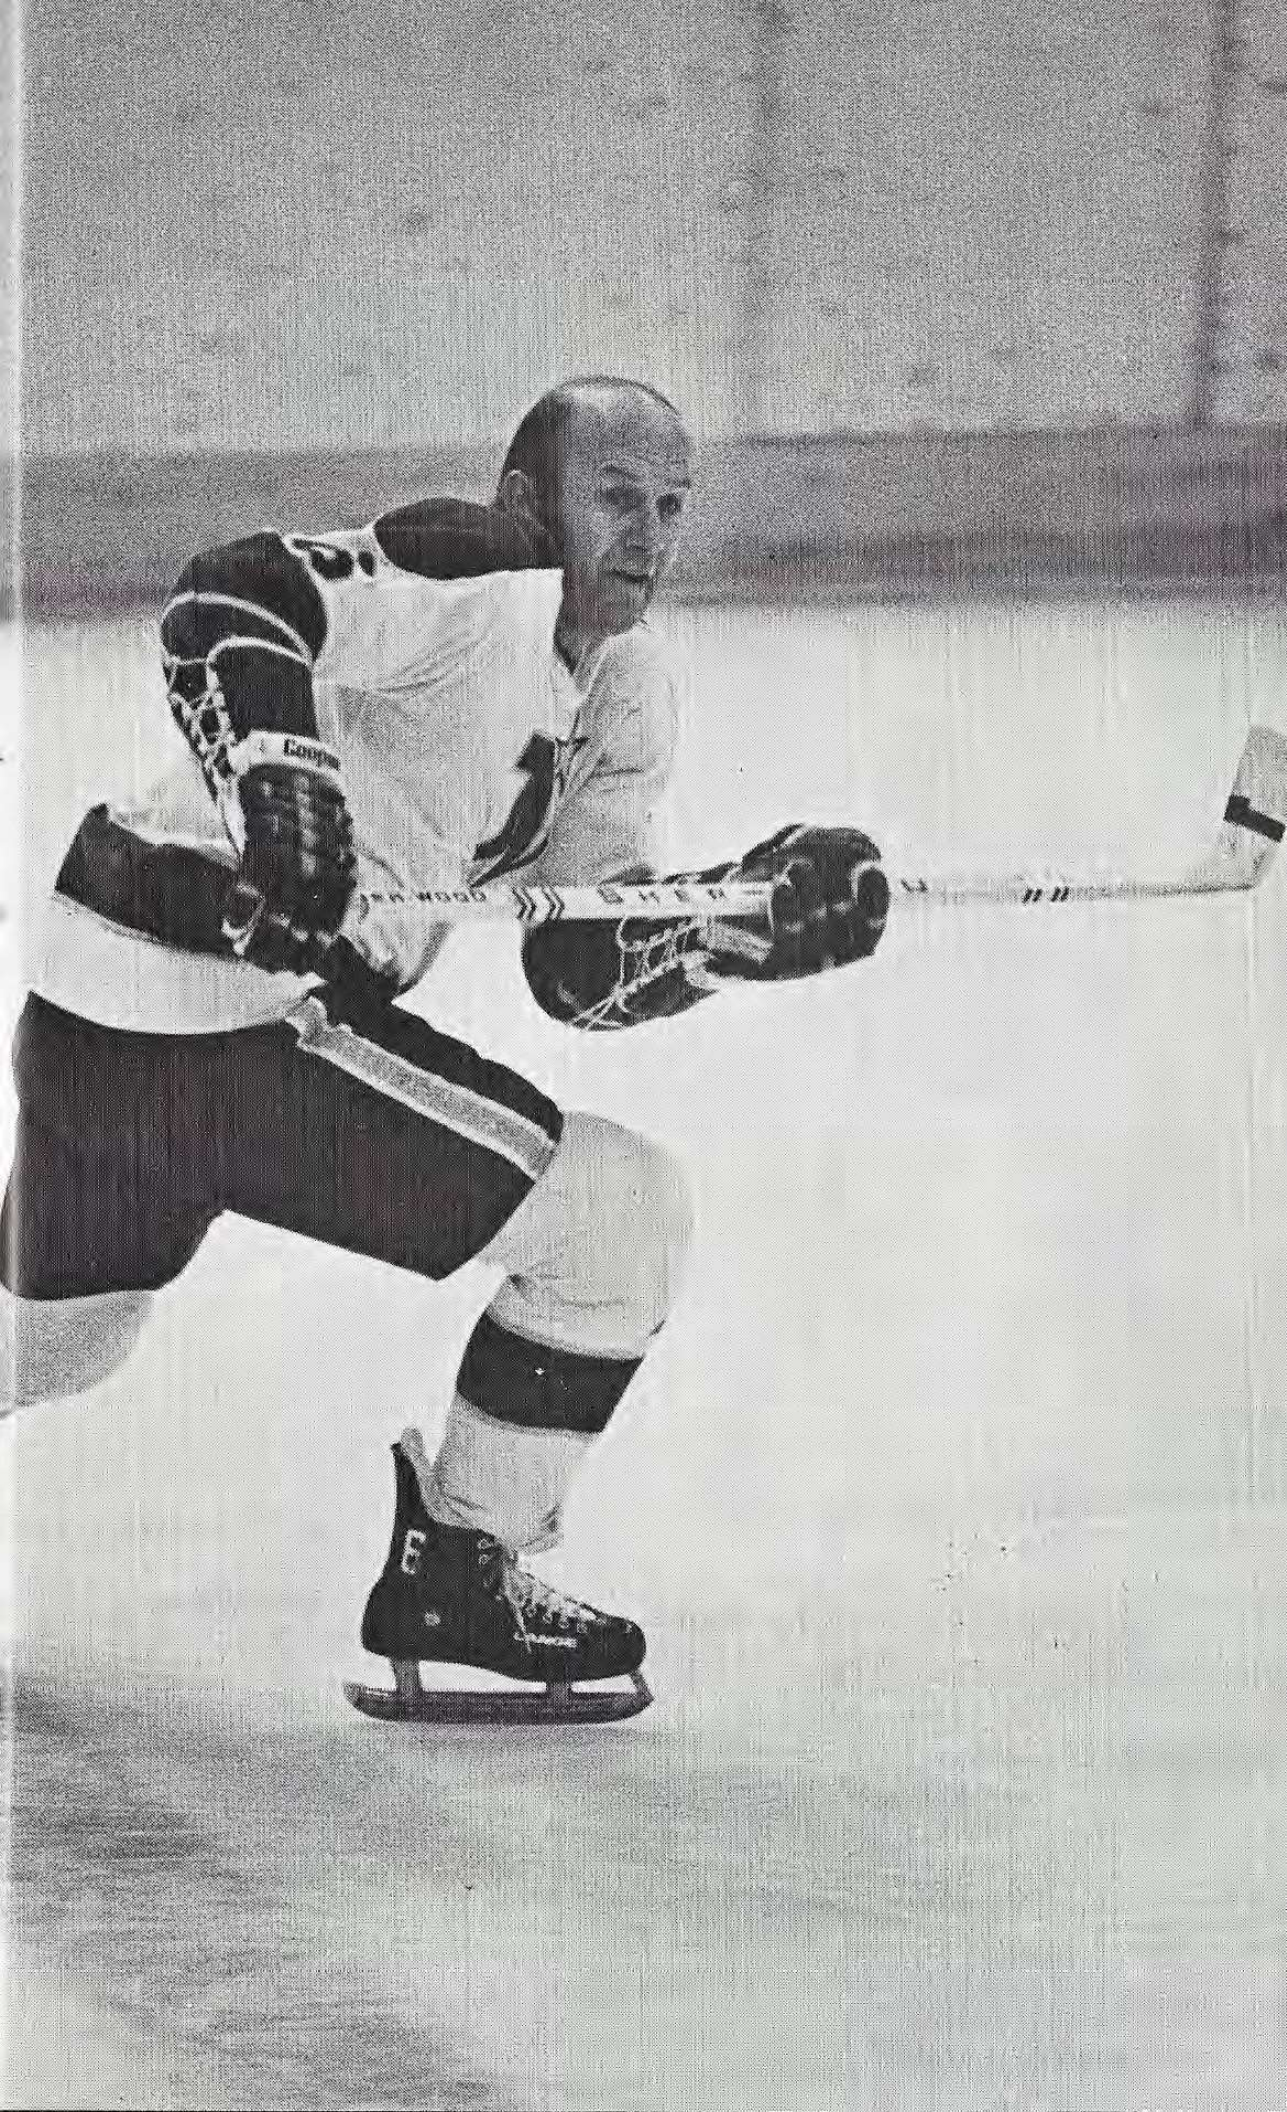

Home: Orchard Lake, Mich.

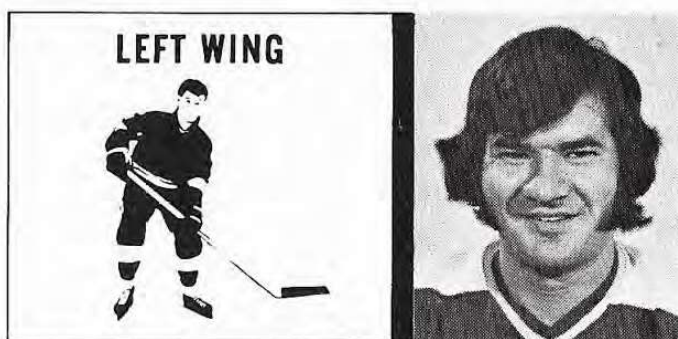

Right Handed, Shoots Left

Gary Bergman was a welcome addition to the North Stars' defense when the veteran rearguard arrived in Minnesota early last season as the result of a trade with the Red Wings. The 11-year National Leaguer is an accomplished puck carrier who moves the puck out of his zone with skill and dispatch. He's also one of the best in the NHL at the difficult and dangerous art of block shots. Bergman also possesses a booming shot that very often is turned into a deflected goal by one of his teammates — witness his 23 assists last season. . . Played for Team Canada against the Soviet Union in 1972. . . Named Detroit's most valuable defenseman for two seasons before he joined the North Stars. . . Co-winner of the Charlie Conacher Humanitarian Award in 1973 in recognition of his work with crippled children and adults. . . Nickname is Bergie. . . Missed a number of games last season because of a recurrent back injury . . . Bergman and his wife, Jane are the parents of three children.

HENRY BOUCHA (BOO-shay)

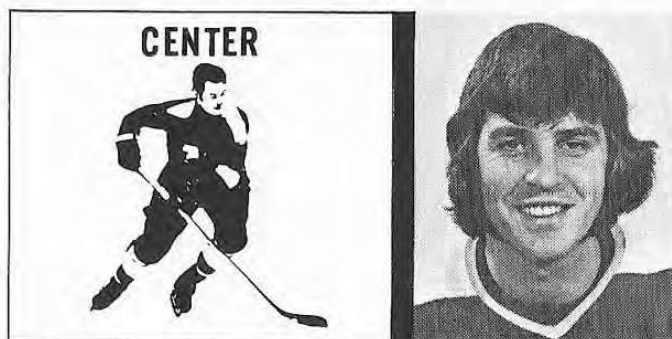

Height: 6-1 — Weight: 190 lbs.
Age: 23 (June 1, 1951)
Born: Warroad, Minn.
Home: Bloomington, Minn.
Right Handed, Shoots Right

It was important news in Minnesota on August 28 when the North Stars obtained Henry Boucha in a trade with Detroit. The reason? Boucha is one of the most talented and charismatic athletes ever to emerge from this state. The broad-shouldered native of the northern Minnesota town of Warroad carved out an enviable career in high school sports at his home town, but was especially proficient in hockey. He nearly single-handed led the Lakers to the finals of the state tournament, then went on to play junior hockey and performed with great distinction for the U.S. National team and the 1972 silver medal-winning U.S. Olympic team. A strong checker and a talented penalty killer, Boucha will be used at left wing by Coach Jack Gordon, but he played all three forward positions at Detroit and was a defenseman in high school. . . Holds the NHL record of the fastest goal after an opening faceoff, six seconds against Montreal on Jan. 28, 1973. . . Part Chippeawa Indian. . . The cousin of Los Angeles player Gary Sargent. . . Active in the Big Brothers organization. . . Has attended Detroit University. . . Works as a hockey school instructor in the off-season.

JUDE (Jewd)
DROUIN (DREW-ehn)

Height: 5-9 — Weight: 162 lbs.
 Age: 25 (Oct. 28, 1948)
 Born: Mont-Louis, Que.
 Home: Burnsville, Minn.
 Right Handed, Shoots Right

Though clever Jude Drouin saw his point total dip last season, the slender center maintained a high level of efficiency on the ice. There was no waste motion by Drouin as he led the North Stars in percentage of important goals with 89.4 per cent and in percentage of important points with 81.3 per cent. Drouin has an excellent shot — his 27 goals two years ago prove the point — but the Minnesota center is even more respected throughout the league for his stickhandling and playmaking skills. Like any other player, Drouin is happy when he scores a goal, but it gives him even more pleasure to make a slick pass that puts a teammate in for a score. During his first season at Minnesota he did just that 52 times, establishing a record for rookies that still stands in the NHL. . . Came to Minnesota in a trade with Montreal in 1970. . . During 1970-71 Drouin scored at least one point in 14 consecutive games to set a Minnesota record. . . Most valuable player and rookie of the year in the American League in 1969-70. . . Drouin met his wife, Deborah, when he was playing hockey in Houston, Texas. They are the parents of two sons, 4 and 1.

BLAKE DUNLOP

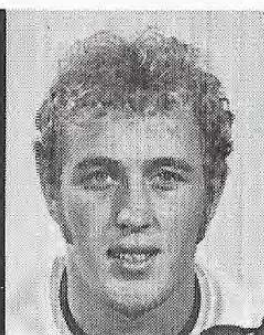

Height: 5-11 — Weight: 175 lbs.
 Age: 21 (April 18, 1953)
 Born: Hamilton, Ont.
 Home: Ottawa, Ont.
 Left Handed, Shoots Right

Blake Dunlop has shown that he can score goals and assists in large clusters in junior hockey and in the American League. Now the second-year professional aims to prove the same point in the National League. The well-put-together center led every junior in Canada two years ago when he scored 159 points for Ottawa of the OHA on 60 goals and 99 assists. After the North Stars made him their first selection in the 1973 Amateur Draft, he performed admirably for Minnesota's New Haven farm team where he scored 78 points in only 59 games on 37 goals and 41 assists. Dunlop also grew in physical and mental maturity at New Haven and those qualities should stand him in good stead in his attempt to land a full-time position with the North Stars... An excellent tennis player, Dunlop was ranked as one of Canada's top juniors in that sport... Coached at Ottawa by ex-North Star Leo Boivin... A junior teammate of NHL rookie of the year Denis Potvin... Attended Carleton University in Ottawa where he studied psychology and sociology... Dunlop is not married.

Age: 21 (July 15, 1953)
Born: Sudbury, Ont.
Home: Sudbury, Ont.

John Flesch's nickname is Fleshie, but he's not. There's no extra poundage on the 6-2, 200-pound frame that makes him the largest forward on the Minnesota team and one of larger wingers in the National Hockey League. It was that size and his undoubted ability to check and to score that impelled Atlanta to select him fifth in the 1973 Amateur Draft and caused Minnesota General Manager-Coach Jack Gordon to obtain him from the Flames in a trade last summer. Flesch had an excellent rookie season for Atlanta's Omaha farm. He scored 27 goals and 27 assists, but Gordon was even more impressed by the checking talents of the highly-motivated youngster....Played college hockey for Lake Superior State College in Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.....Earlier played Junior A hockey for Coach Barry McKenzie, an ex-North Star, at Sudbury....Studied history and physical education at Lake Superior State....Was a defenseman in his younger days....Flesh is married. Height: 6-1 — Weight: 194 lbs.
 Age: 30 (Aug. 24, 1944)
 Born: Kitchener, Ont.

Fame and responsibility have been thrust at Bill Goldsworthy as one of two remaining original North Stars — Cesare Maniago is the other — starts his eighth season in a green, white and gold sweater. The fame arises from his 48-goal season last year. That output smashed Goldy's own team record, placed him fifth among all NHL Goal scorers in 1973-74 and made him the first player ever to score 200 goals for a post-1967 team. Responsibility arrived when he was named the North Stars' captain, a position Goldsworthy views as the highest honor he has won in hockey. Goldy not only made scoring history last season, but also made his mark as a complete hockey player. He turned in an outstanding season-long job of checking and was one of Minnesota's key penalty killers. . . Led the North Stars in shots (321), important goals (34), game winning goals (4), first goals (12), tying goals (7), leading goals (6) and proximate goals (6). . . Has averaged 35.2 goals over the last five years. . . First-team West All-Star last year and voted third among right wingers on the NHL All-Star team. . . Sporting News West All-Star unanimous choice. . . Played for Team Canada against the Soviet Union. . . Bill and his wife, June, are the parents of a girl, 6, and a boy, 3.

BARRY GIBBS

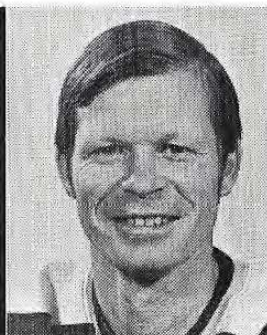

Height: 5-10 — Weight: 180 lbs.
 Age: 26 (Sept. 28, 1948)
 Born: Lloydminster, Sask.
 Home: Bloomington, Minn.
 Right Handed, Shoots Right

When you discuss the finest offensive defensemen in the National Hockey League, the name of Barry Gibbs has to emerge somewhere in the conversation. The rugged blueliner is equally adept at carrying the puck and putting it in the net. The result of this combination last year was Gibbs' best offensive season in the National League — nine goals and 29 assists for 38 points. Several of those goals were scored on rink-length dashes that left several defenders sprawling in his wake. Gibbs came to Minnesota in a 1969 trade with Boston, earned a starting position and has kept it ever since. During his first four seasons with the North Stars he led the team in penalty minutes each year and holds the team record of 182 minutes in one season. . . His 151 shots led all Minnesota defensemen last season. . . Named to the West All-Star team two years ago. . . Enjoys boating and water skiing during the summer. . . Also works as a hockey school instructor during the off-season. . . His 31 goals as a North Star are a career high for Minnesota blueliners. . . Barry and his wife, Lynda, are the parents of three boys, 5, 3 and 2.

CENTERDENNIS

Height: 6-0 — Weight: 176 lbs.
 Age: 31 (April 17, 1943)
 Born: Winnipeg, Man.
 Home: Edina, Minn.
 Right Handed, Shoots Left

No one can say Dennis Hextall isn't consistent. The hard-rock redhead has played two full seasons with the North Stars. In each of those seasons he led all Minnesota scorers. In each of those seasons he scored 82 points. What's more, he was the toughest man on the ice far more often than not in every game of those two seasons. The combination of talent and aggressiveness makes Hextall one of the most effective centers in the National Hockey League. He is willing to work very hard to get the puck and when he gets it, he is both skillful and unselfish in setting up his wingers. The 48 goals scored by Bill Goldsworthy, Hextall's right winger last season, prove that point. . . An All-America player at North Dakota University. . . His father, Bryan, Sr., is a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame. . . Came to Minnesota in a 1971 trade with California. . . Led the North Stars last year with 60 points that were ranked as important. . . His 62 assists last season set a team record. . . Works as a hockey school instructor during the off-season. . . Hextall was married last summer. His wife's name is Becky.

DOUG HICKS

Height: 6-0 — Weight: 185 lbs.
Age: 19 (May 29, 1955)
Born: Cold Lake, Alta.
Home: Thompson, Man.

This past spring each National Hockey League club was allowed to select one under-age player of exceptional ability in the first two rounds of the Amateur Draft. The North Stars thought so highly of Doug Hicks' talents that they made the young defenseman their very first choice. What is exceptional about Hicks? Chief Scout Ted O'Connor, who followed his play closely last season, feels that Hicks' superior intelligence on the ice is a quality that sets him far above other young rearguards. O'Connor also ranks Hicks as an excellent puck carrier who maintains control of the game when he's on the ice. His junior coach at Flin Flon, Mel Pearson, calls him the best defenseman in the Western Canada Junior League, which is praise, indeed, since the WCJHL graduated an outstanding crop of blueliners....Nickname is Hicksy....Played a fine game for Flin Flon when the Bombers met the Soviet Union's National team last winter in Met Center....Cool on the ice, he nevertheless collected more than 100 penalty minutes last season....Hicks is not married.

When you make the jump from the International Hockey League to the National Hockey League in one season, you've come a long way, baby. Burly Al Langlais made that jump. Two years ago he was playing for Baie Comeau in the Quebec Senior League. He was spotted there by the North Stars' scouting staff while scoring 47 goals and 66 assists. Langlais started last season at Saginaw in the IHL, then after 11 games was brought up to New Haven of the AHL. He scored 21 goals in 45 games and was promptly promoted to the North Stars where his play was so impressive that he finished out the season with the NHL club. Langlais has the physical credentials to play it tough and that's just what he does. The hard-hitting winger enjoys hurtling into the corners and reminds many observers of Minnesota's J.P. Parise's early years as a professional.... Played two seasons for Long Island of the EHL Studied dentistry for one year Langlais and his wife, Carole, are the parents of a daughter, 1.

John Mariucci said it best. "Pete LoPresti has the potential to become as good a goaltender as his father and when he does, the North Stars' will have a great one in their goal." The Minnesota director of U.S. college scouting knows what he's talking about. He was a teammate of Pete's father, Sam, at Chicago and personally scouted the younger LoPresti before the North Stars made him their third choice in last spring's Amateur Draft. LoPresti, who played last year for Denver University, is big, strong and has all the moves. He's a standup goaltender who has good positional sense, quick reactions and the ability to recover swiftly. All he lacks is professional experience and that's what he'll get this season....LoPresti's father set the NHL record of 80 saves in one game in a 3-2 Chicago loss to Boston on March 4, 1941....Pete learned hockey in the Eveleth youth program and went on to star for Eveleth High School....Drafted highest of any U.S.-born and trained player in the 1974 Draft....Pete was married last summer. Cesare Maniago has been the North Stars' No. 1 goalkeeper during the entire history of the franchise. He's in the same position again as the team starts its eighth year of play. The tall man from Trail, B.C., not only has all the necessary skills of his trade, but he also possesses a near-perfect temperament for a player in his demanding position. "Never any problems with Cesare," says General Manager-Coach Jack Gordon. "He's ready to play no matter what." If there is such a thing in this day and age as an orthodox goalie, Maniago does not fit the pattern, but his long arms and legs and his quick reflexes enable him to perform with great distinction... The very first player chosen by the North Stars in the 1967 Expansion Draft... Maniago and Bill Goldsworthy are the last two original North Stars... Missed more than a month of last season with a broken bone in his catching hand... Has played more than half of the schedule in each of his eight years at Minnesota... A hockey school instructor during the summer... Cesare and his wife, Mavis, are the parents of three girls, 9, 7 and 4.

 Age: 22 (April 25, 1952)
 Born: Kimberly, B.C.
 Home: Sardis, B.C.
 Right Handed, Shoots Left

Don Martineau emerged from the mountainous interior of British Columbia with the reputation as hard-bitten hockey player. Nothing he has done since then has detracted from that image. Martineau amassed 451 penalty minutes in three junior seasons at New Westminster, B.C. and Estevan, Sask. After Atlanta made him its fourth Amateur Draft selection in 1972 Martineau put in two seasons at the Flames' Central League farm in Omaha. He had 170 minutes and 122 minutes in penalties in those two seasons despite missing part of the second year with an injured knee. The well-built right winger also is no slouch at scoring. He scored 22 goals in his rookie season. But it was his ability as a checker that was the prime motivation for the trade by General Manager-Coach Jack Gordon that brought Martineau from the Flames to the North Stars.... One of the biggest North Stars forwards.... Works during the summer as an instructor in a hockey school.... Martineau is married. His wife's name is Susan.

Height: 6-0 — Weight: 186 lbs.
 Age: 33 (June 2, 1941)
 Born: Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.
 Home: Edina, Minn.

No matter what position Lou Nanne plays, he is one of the most valuable North Stars on the ice. Nanne played defense in college and for the United States Olympic team and came to the North Stars as a blueliner. But in the 1971-72 season Coach Jack Gordon switched him to right wing where he played outstanding hockey for two years. When Minnesota came up short on defense last season, Nanne strapped on his ankle guards and went back again to the blue line where his play was so outstanding that he was voted the Tom Dill Trophy as the team's leading defenseman. This year Gordon's preliminary plans call for Nanne to move back to wing where his solid checking game adds stability to the North Stars' attack. But if he's needed anywhere — except, perhaps, in goal — Nanne has the skill and the grit to do the job. . . Captain of the University of Minnesota team and the 1968 U.S. Olympic squad . . . Director of the North Stars' summer hockey school. . . Owns a farm in western Minnesota and is involved in raising horses. . . Played hockey as a youngster with Phil and Tony Esposito. . . Lou and his wife, Francine, are the parents of a girl, 10, twin boys, 8 and a boy, 6.

RICHARD NANTAIS (nan-TAY)

Age: 19 (Oct. 27, 1954)
Born: Repentigny, Que.

Hockey is a form of combat and Richard Nantais is the most combative player drafted by the North Stars in several seasons. His heroes in hockey are former Montreal player John Ferguson and Philadelphia's Dave Schultz. That choice of idols tells a great deal about Nantais' approach to the game. But don't hasten to the conclusion that Nantais is merely a ruffian on the ice. The powerfully-built young man scored 64 goals and 130 assists for the Quebec Remparts in his final junior year last season. What's more, he was a formidable checker in a league where that phase of the game often was left undone. All these qualities led General Manager-Coach Jack Gordon and his staff to make Nantais their No. 2 choice in the 1974 Amateur Draft and also led Gordon to predict that he has a good chance to play in the NHL in his rookie year....Has three brothers and three sisters....Played left wing, right wing and center during his junior and juvenile career....Nantais is not married.

 Born: Port Hope, Ont.

Pugnacious Dennis O'Brien led the North Stars with 166 penalty minutes last season, but his value to the Minnesota team involved far more than mugging opponents. O'Brien always has been a strong puck carrier and has improved a great deal in all phases of playing defense during his three full seasons with the North Stars. He not only has a good shot from the point, but also is adept with the puck when he gets in close on the net. O'Brien's five goals last season were a personal high for the young man from Port Hope, Ont., and he can be expected to improve on that performance in years to come in the National Hockey League. . . O'Brien once held the Central League record of 331 penalty minutes in one season. . . Has five brothers and three sisters. . . Was the North Stars' No. 2 choice in the 1969 Amateur Draft. . . Led both the Central League and the Ontario Hockey Association in penalty minutes. . . Scored his first NHL goal against Glenn Hall. . . A hockey school instructor during the summer. . . Height: 5-9 — Weight: 170 lbs.
 Age: 36 (Nov. 14, 1937)
 Born: Hamilton, Ont.
 Home: Edina, Minn.

The many talents of Murray Oliver add up to value received by the Minnesota organization since the man his teammates call Muzz was obtained by the North Stars from Toronto in 1970. He's a skilled center who is adept at setting up either of his wingers. He can put the puck in the net — he scored his 250th National Hockey League goal last season. He's also a peerless penalty killer and has filled that role ever since he came to Minnesota. Furthermore, Oliver is durable. He's missed only three games in the last three seasons and last year passed the 1000-game mark in his NHL career... Holds the North Stars' record of five assists in one game... An all-round athlete, Oliver plays shortstop on the North Stars' softball team and golfs in the mid-to-high 70s... Voted most valuable North Star by his teammates in 1971-72... His personal NHL high in goals was 27 in 1971-72... Named most valuable player in the Ontario Hockey Association as a junior in 1958... Murray and his wife, Helen, are the parents of a boy, 11, and a girl, 6.

A player who barrels into the corners without regard for life and limb is worth his weight in gold in the National Hockey League. At the current price of gold on the world market, Jean Paul Parise is worth a tidy sum for he is surely one of the best, if not the very best, cornermen in the National League. That's been Parise's style ever since the North Stars dealt away five players to obtain his services in December of 1967. He has had good goal scoring years for the North Stars — 27 in 1972-73 and 24 in 1969-70 — but his greatest value to the team is his ability to dig the puck away from one or two foes and feed it to one of his teammates. . . One of the key players for Team Canada in its 1972 series against the Soviet Union. . . Has twice been named to the West All-Star team. . . Instructs in the North Stars' hockey school during the summer. .

DEFENSE

TOM REID

Height: 6-1 — Weight: 200 lbs.

Age: 28 (June 24, 1946)

Born: Fort Erie, Ont.

Home: Fort Erie, Ont.

Right Handed, Shoots Left

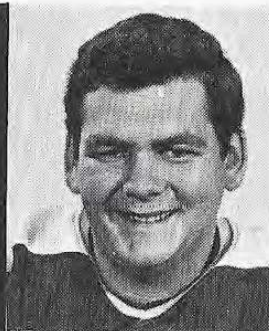

Since Bobby Orr first burst on the National Hockey League scene, more attention has been paid to offensive defensemen than to their defensively-minded brethren. That's a shame because defense, as played by Tom Reid, is just as important if not more important than the attacking game. It's not that Reid doesn't enjoy scoring goals. He likes to see the red light go on as much as any other player. But his style of play is defensive — blocking shots, poke checking the puck away from the opposition, clearing the area in front of his goal — the whole range of play that makes for a sound defenseman. He's been doing this and doing it well ever since the North Stars gained his services in a 1969 trade with Chicago. . . Reid scored the only successful regular-season penalty shot by a North Star in 1971 against Montreal's Ken Dryden. . . Involved in the operation of a sporting goods store in his home town. . . Mosts accomplished practical joker on the Minnesota squad. . . Tom and his wife, Susan, make their home in Fort Erie, Ont., during the summer.

GOALTENDER

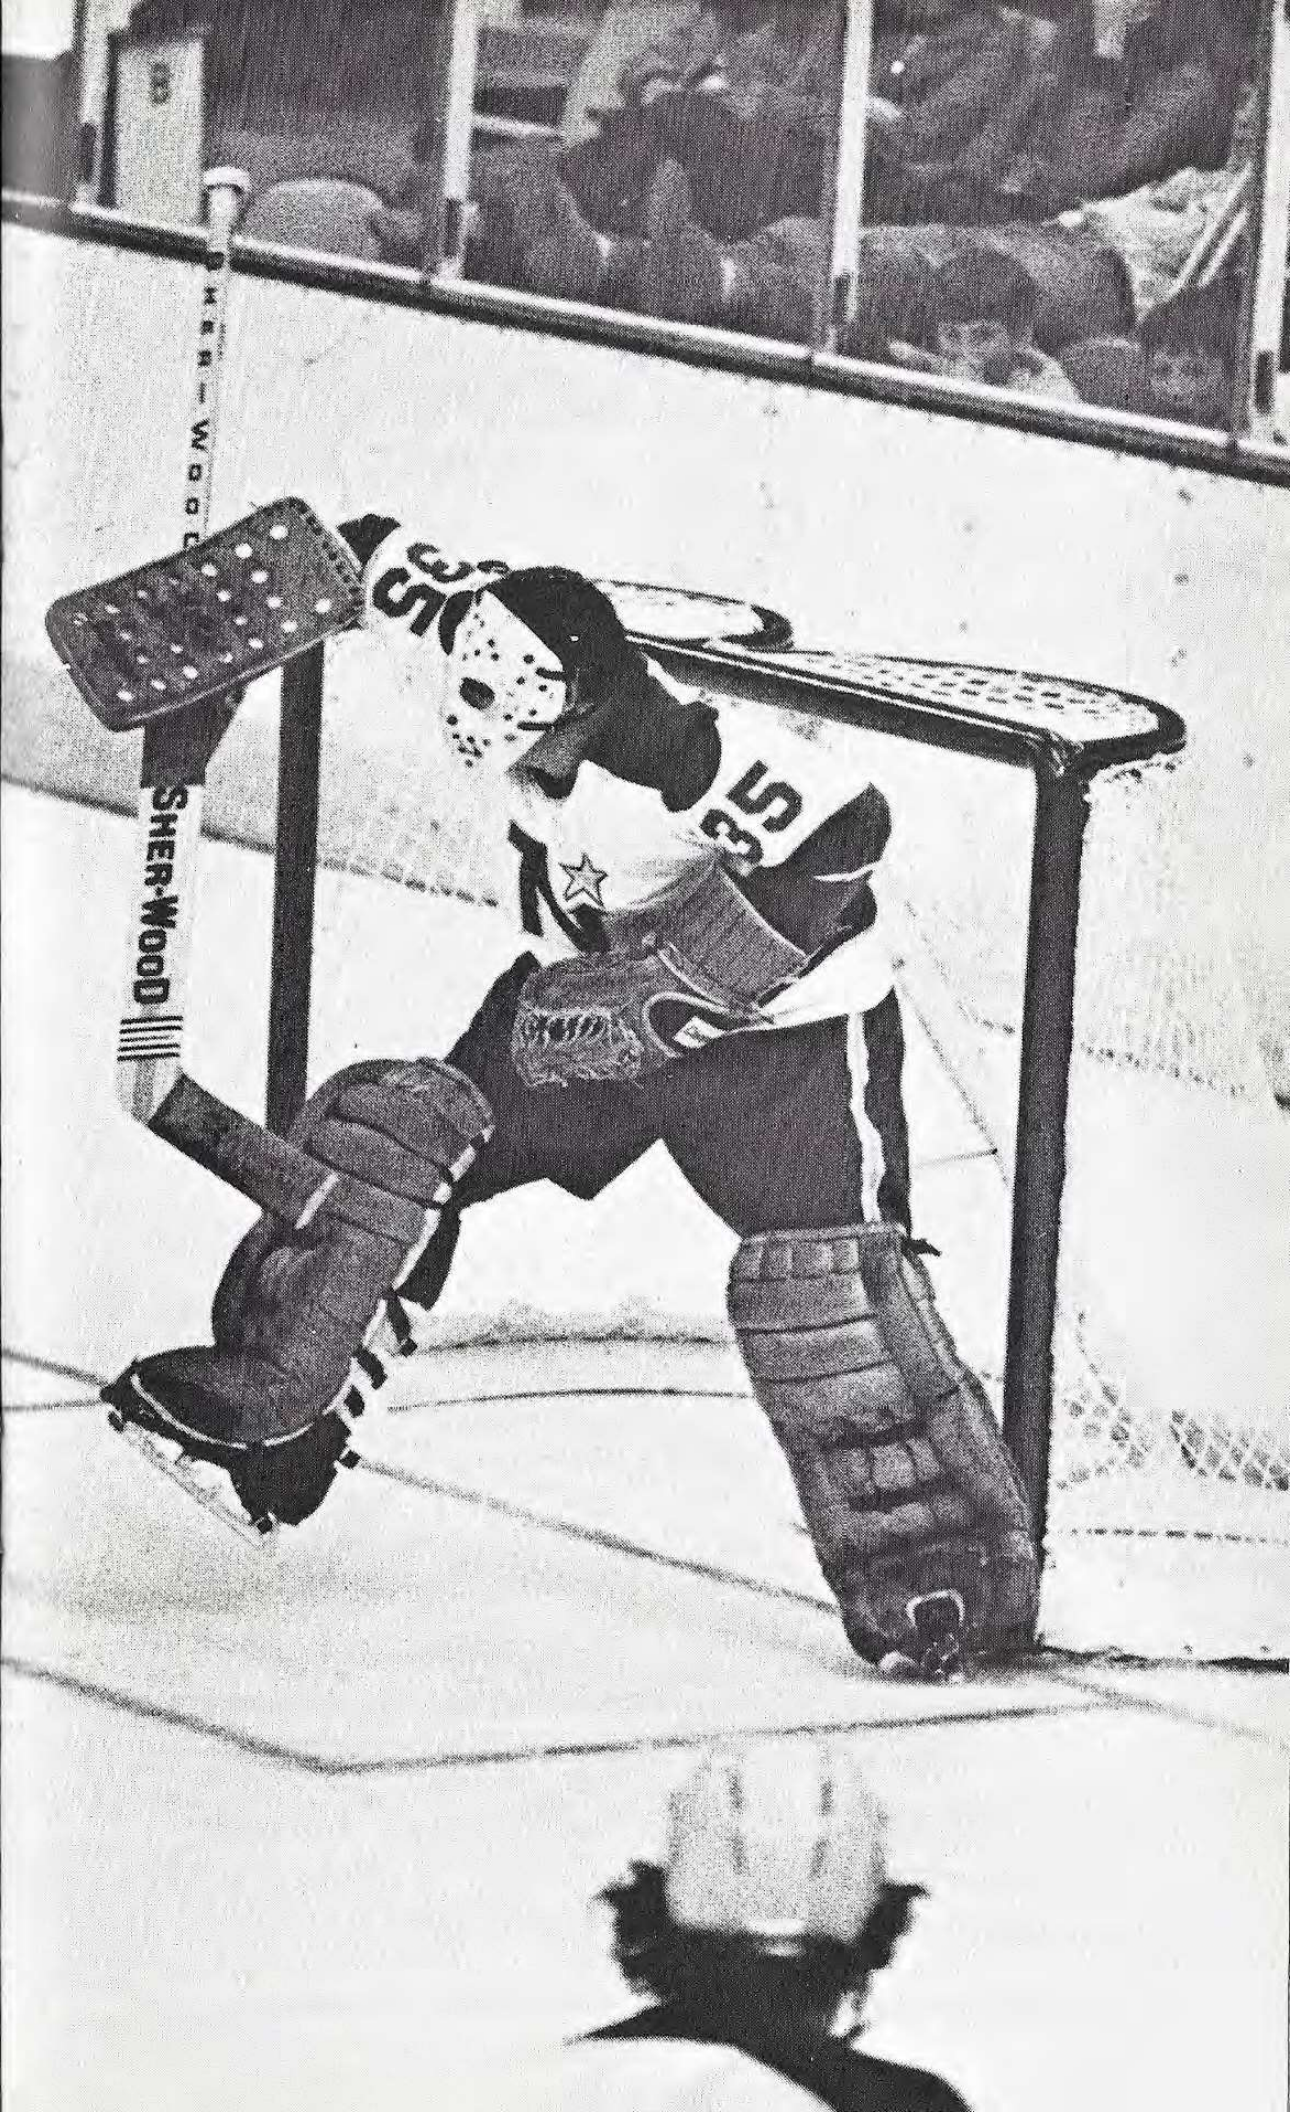

FERN RIVARD

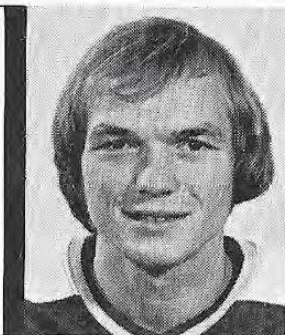

Height 5-9 — Weight: 185 lbs.
Age: 28 (Jan. 18, 1946)
Born: Grand Mere, Que.
Home: Stoneham, Que.

Fernand (Fern) Rivard arrives this season at a crossroads in his hockey career. He is 28 years old, the prime of life for a goalkeeper. He has been in the North Stars' system for six seasons, serving largely in the minor leagues, but often as a backup goalie for the NHL team. Now that Gump Worsley has retired, there's an opening in the North Stars' goalkeeping corps and the stocky, serious Rivard has a chance to win a full-time position. If he does, the North Stars will have a fine one-two punch in goal in the persons of Cesare Maniago and Rivard. . . Acquired by the North Stars from Philadelphia in the Intra-League Draft of 1968. . . Divided his time between Minnesota and the North Stars' New Haven farm team last season. . . Has two shut-outs in the NHL, one last season against Detroit. . . An excellent tennis player in his high school days. . . Didn't play his first game in goal until he was 13 years old . . . Played junior hockey in the Montreal system. Rivard is married.

 Born: Paradise Hills, Sask.

Though he was hampered by a prolonged bout with mononucleosis, Johnny Rogers, the hard-bitten rancher from Saskatchewan, managed a respectable rookie year in professional hockey. The youngster, No. 3 choice of the North Stars in the 1973 Amateur Draft, was particularly effective when he was called up from New Haven by Minnesota to fill a gap at right wing. He showed a willingness to give out and take punishment that should stand him in good stead as his career progresses. That quality comes as no surprise to the North Stars' scouting staff which ranked him as Canada's No. 1 corner man in his final year of junior play with the Edmonton Oil Kings... Rogers' family is in the ranching business in northern Saskatchewan and Johnny spends his summers working on the ranch... Comes from a skating family. His three older brothers played junior and college hockey, one of them at University of Minnesota-Duluth, and one of his sisters is a figure skater... Had 219 minutes in penalties in his final junior year... Rogers is not married.

When Fred Stanfield scores a goal or an assist, you can bet the farm that it will be important. You'd have a better than 80 per cent chance of winning the wager. The cool and calm center obtained in a 1973 deal with Boston led the North Stars last season when 89.4 per cent of the goals he scored were important and 81.3 per cent of the points he scored were important. It's nothing new to Stanfield. He led the Bruins in percentage of important points two seasons ago. Stanfield dipped below his normal goal and point production last winter, but General Manager-Coach Jack Gordon expects the veteran to be a key to Minnesota's plans of moving up in the National Hockey League. Stanfield not only plays a sound game at center, but he's also exceptionally valuable because of his shooting ability and puck control on the left point when the North Stars mount a power play... Two of his brothers play pro hockey and a third performed for Boston University last season... Fred and his wife are the parents of a son, 7, and a daughter, 4.

NORTH STARS' RADIO and TV TEAMS

Once again this season North Stars' followers will be able to watch or listen to all 80 regular-season games, either on WTCN-TV (Channel 11) or on WCCO-Radio (830).

WCCO-Radio will, for the eighth straight season, carry every one of the regular-season games. WTCN-TV will televise three home games and 27 games on the road. There also is a possibility that certain North Stars' games will be carried nationally by NBC-TV as part of the NBC-NHL Game of the Week series.

Al Shaver returns for his eighth season at the microphone as hockey play-by-play man for WCCO-Radio. The talented and popular sportscaster is the only person who has covered every Minnesota regular-season and playoff game since the North Stars joined the National Hockey League. Steve Cannon will serve as color commentator during the WCCO broadcasts. The well-known disk jockey is starting his third season as North Stars' color man.

Joe Boyle will call the games for WTCN-TV. This is Boyle's second season of play-by-play with the North Stars. The voice of the Minnesota State High School Hockey Tournament also handled North Stars' color for two seasons before moving to the play-by-play position. Analysis and color during the televised games will be done by Roger Buxton, who ably performed those duties in a number of games last season.
